

CHETANA
International Journal of Education (CIJE)

Peer Reviewed/Refereed Journal
ISSN : 2455-8279 (E)/2231-3613 (P)

Impact Factor
SJIF 2024 - 8.029

Prof. A.P. Sharma
Founder Editor, CIJE
(25.12.1932 - 09.01.2019)

[Conference Special-NTMAE-24]

The Role of Ethics in Education

Ashok Kumar

Research Scholar

Prof. Rita Sharma

Research Guide, University Of Rajasthan, Jaipur

Email-ashokkumarchaudhary77@gmail.com, Mobile- 9536037085

First draft received: 21.05.2024, Reviewed: 30.05.2024, Final proof received: 08.06.2024, Accepted: 25.06.2024

Abstract

Ethics are elucidated or interpreted differently in different situations which tell us about the standards of behavior to act properly in different situations with friends, parents, children, citizens, business peoples, teachers, professionals etc. In educational so, ethics are very important which helps to run the education system smoothly. Ethics has a great significance in education over the year sand recently institutions are creating courses that serve students to understand ethics. In education, the intention of ethics is not only of learning ethics but also to improve intellectual dimensions which will authorize people to identify ethical dimensions of issues and address ethical issues in the field as various as medicines, economics and policy amid others Theoretical applied or practical normative ethics, professional ethics, descriptive ethics, meta ethics.

Keywords: Ethics, technological changes etc.

Introduction

Ethics has a very important role in every sphere and part of our lives. Ethics are simply means as the discipline of handling and dealing with good and bad commitment and moral duty. These are some well- established levels which helps us to know about the right and wrong. The ethics settles the levels and standards of what's acceptable and what's not and it influences the behavior of people and helps an individual to choose the right option.

Ethics are elucidated or interpreted differently in different situations which tell us about the standards of behavior to act properly in different situations with friends, parents, children, citizens, business peoples, teachers, professionals etc. In educational so, ethics are very important which helps to run the education system smoothly. Ethics has a great significance in education over the year sand recently institutions are creating courses that serve students to understand ethics. In education, the intention of ethics is not only of learning ethics but also to improve intellectual dimensions which will authorize people to identify ethical dimensions of issues and address ethical issues in the field as various as medicines, economics and policy amid others

Theoretical applied or practical normative ethics, professional ethics, descriptive ethics, meta ethics.

As the new technological changes and development is taking place, there are many challenges also are growing in the global era. The whole world is becoming very mechanical and commercial in which expectation of honesty and commitment among people is like a dream now. The social media is also playing a very pivotal role in the life of every people as well as children and its effect has made them unrealistic in every sphere of their lives. Due to these reasons, a great demand of ethics has been growing in the field of education to inculcate and develop morality and values among the students specially youths. Therefore, the present study is focused to know about the importance of ethics in education.

Education

In the modern society education plays a very significant role. Education makes a person enlightened and well-mannered. An educated person is a country's precious property on which it's all kinds of development i.e. economic, social, educational, cultural etc. is depended. Without education man would still believe with the behaviors of an animal and it is education which transfigured man into civilized persons. It begins before the birth of a child and continues still the very moment before death. It brings culture among human being who is an important asset of a society. It makes a man fit to live life better and develops in human being various significant values like social awareness, economic productivity, cultural and moral refinement etc.

The role of ethics in education

Ethics in education is a very broad term that gives learning experiences to students which is fruitful for them to grow ethically. It can be considered as a means of expanding ethical awareness and understanding motivation to behave and act ethically in the whole world. In education, there are four principles of ethics. They are- Honesty:- Honesty means being trustworthy, loyal, truthful, sincere, fair etc. which is a very important trait to have in education. The strong bonding of teacher and student in a school always comes from mutual trust and respect. But, it is seen that in today's world students and academicians are running only after academics, marks etc. and most of them have forgotten about the importance of values and morals in the educational setting. But, success doesn't come only from academics but also we must have the morality to complement our knowledge. It is one of the important individual assets that a person always should have. So, in the education system students should be provided knowledge along with moralities and ethics and they must guide properly from their childhood to develop honesty among them.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality means not disclosing or revealing one's commitment or information to the unauthorized people and this is also a very important ethics in education. when a student faces any stress, crisis or challenge they seek helps from students affair professionals and it is the responsibility of them to maintain confidentiality about them.

Conflict of interest

The conflict of interest may occur when the best and highly preferable interest of a person is not similar or doesn't match the best interest of another individual or organization to which an individual experience loyalty. Therefore, in a school environment students personal interests should be given proper priorities and it is a big responsibility of teachers.

Responsibility

Responsibility is also a very vital and important ethics in education among all other ethics. It is the responsibility of students to show proper respect and careful manners to their teachers as well as other classmates in school and teachers should take strong initiative regarding teaching students about their responsibilities.

Importance of professional ethics for teachers

A professional code of ethics is a guiding principle which aims to abet professionals' toper form work with dedication, honesty, sincerity, commitment etc. with integrity. It deals with the principles and values that a professional should implement to make the workplace environment creative and conductive. The professional skills and knowledge is a key element which every professional should require to achieve or acquire to do their services with determination and proper commitment. These are designed purposively for teachers to shield the rights of the students and these ethics are very important for teachers to understand their work ethics and values before coming into the teaching profession.

The school is said as the miniature of society and a formal agency that provides education to students. Teaching and the teachers are the two major key of this society without which the educational process cannot function properly. So, a teacher has to always know about hismassiveresponsibilitiesandunderstandhisprofession.The c odesofprofessionalethics haveagreat significance in this regard. So, the absence of these professional ethics in teachers may influence on the development of students. According to Benning a teachers must give focus on providing the right path and guiding to students to make them well- mannered, well- behaved, and develop good attitude within them. Some significant professional codes of ethics for teachers are as follows-

- A teacher should always be aware about his own roles and responsibilities and must respect the privacy of other members of their own school.
- They must have proper knowledge about student's needs and a deep vision of fulfilling the present needs, requirements and aspirations of the learners.
- He/she should always show due respect to various spiritual and cultural values, diversity, social justice, democracy, freedom and the environment.
- Teachers should show affection, care and love to students and build good pious and respectful relationship with students.
- Teachers should be honest, dedicated and reliable towards school and students.
- Teachers should maintain cordial and reverential relationships with all the stakeholders of school. They must try to win trust of his pupils, colleagues, parents, school management and the public as well.
- They should always keep them away from the conflict between their professional work and private work which may affect students' perception towards the school and teachers.

One of the important individual assets that a person always should have. So, in the education system students should be provided knowledge along with moralities and ethics and they must guide properly from their childhood to develop honesty among them.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality means not disclosing or revealing one's commitment or information to the unauthorized people and this is also a very important ethics in education. when a student faces any stress, crisis or challenge they seek helps from students affair professionals and it is the responsibility of them to maintain confidentiality about them.

Conflict of interest

The conflict of interest may occur when the best and highly preferable interest of a person is not similar or doesn't match the best interest of another individual or organization to which an individual experience loyalty. Therefore, in a school environment students personal interests should be given proper priorities and it is a big responsibility of teachers.

Responsibility

Responsibility is also a very vital and important ethics in education among all other ethics. It is the responsibility of students to show proper respect and careful manners to their teachers as well as other classmates in school and teachers should take strong initiative regarding teaching students about their responsibilities.

Importance of professional ethics for teachers

A professional code of ethics is a guiding principle which aims to abet professionals' to perform work with dedication, honesty, sincerity, commitment etc. with integrity. It deals with the principles and values that a professional should implement to make the workplace environment creative and conductive. The professional skills and knowledge is a key element which every professional should require to achieve or acquire to do their services with determination and proper commitment. These are designed purposely for teachers to shield the rights of the students and these ethics are very important for teachers to understand their work ethics and values before coming into the teaching profession (Sherpa, 2018).

The school is said as the miniature of society and a formal agency that provides education to students. Teaching and the teachers are the two major key of this society without which the educational process cannot function properly. So, a teacher has to always know about his massive responsibilities and understand his profession. The codes of professional ethics have a great significance in this regard. So, the absence of these professional ethics in teachers may influence on the development of students. According to Benninga teachers must give focus on providing the right path and guiding to students to make them well-mannered, well-behaved, and develop good attitude within them. Some significant professional codes of ethics for teachers are as follows-

- A teacher should always be aware about his own roles and responsibilities and must respect the privacy of other members of their own school.
- They must have proper knowledge about student's needs and a deep vision of fulfilling the present needs, requirements and aspirations of the learners.
- He/she should always show due respect to various spiritual and cultural values, diversity, social justice, democracy, freedom and the environment.
- Teachers should show affection, care and love to students and build good pious and respectful relationship with students.
- Teachers should be honest, dedicated and reliable towards school and students.
- Teachers should maintain cordial and reverential relationships with all the stakeholders of school. They must try to win trust of his pupils, colleagues, parents, school management and the public as well.
- They should always keep them away from the conflict between their professional work and private work which may affect students' perception towards the school and teachers.

One of the important individual assets that a person always should have. So, in the education system students should be provided knowledge along with moralities and ethics and they must guide properly from their childhood to develop honesty among them.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality means not disclosing or revealing one's commitment or information to the unauthorized people and this is also a very important ethics in education. When a student faces any stress, crisis or challenge they seek help from students affairs professionals and it is the responsibility of them to maintain confidentiality about them.

Conflict of interest

The conflict of interest may occur when the best and highly preferable interest of a person is not similar or doesn't match the best interest of another individual or organization to which an individual experiences loyalty. Therefore, in a school environment students personal interests should be given proper priorities and it is a big responsibility of teachers.

Responsibility

Responsibility is also a very vital and important ethics in education among all other ethics. It is the responsibility of students to show proper respect and careful manners to their teachers as well as other classmates in school and teachers should take strong initiative regarding teaching students about their responsibilities.

Importance of professional ethics for teachers

A professional code of ethics is a guiding principle which aims to abet professionals to perform work with dedication, honesty, sincerity, commitment etc. with integrity. It deals with the principles and values that a professional should implement to make the workplace environment creative and conductive. The professional skills and knowledge is a key element which every professional should require to achieve or acquire to do their services with determination and proper commitment. These are designed purposely for teachers to shield the rights of the students and these ethics are very important for teachers to understand their work ethics and values before coming into the teaching profession.

The school is said as the miniature of society and a formal agency that provides education to students. Teaching and the teachers are the two major key of this society without which the educational process cannot function properly. So, a teacher has to always know about his massive responsibilities and understand his profession. The codes of professional ethics have a great significance in this regard. So, the absence of these professional ethics in teachers may influence on the development of students. According to Benninga teachers must give focus on providing the right path and guiding to students to make them well-mannered, well-behaved, and develop good attitude within them. Some significant professional codes of ethics for teachers are as follows-

- A teacher should always be aware about his own roles and responsibilities and must respect the privacy of other members of their own school.

- They must have proper knowledge about student's needs and a deep vision of fulfilling the present needs, requirements and aspirations of the learners.
- He/she should always show due respect to various spiritual and cultural values, diversity, social justice, democracy, freedom and the environment.
- Teachers should show affection, care and love to students and build good pious and respectful relationship with students.
- Teachers should be honest, dedicated and reliable towards school and students.
- Teachers should maintain cordial and reverential relationships with all the stakeholders of school. They must try to win trust of his pupils, colleagues, parents, school management and the public as well.

Conclusion

Education is considered as a valuable asset of every human. It is a key to make an all-round development among children and it is the primary duty of every teacher to impart quality teaching in all levels of education to bring optimum development among students. Students are also need to learn about ethics, practice it to grow with a unique personality of high moral values and ethics. To become success, in this regard, a teacher has to gain knowledge about the professional ethics of teaching first. Teachers' should show equal level of dignity to his profession, institution, students, colleagues as well as parents and they should take the liability of teaching profession seriously and perform their duty effectively. Therefore, in education, implementation of teaching ethics to students as well as professional ethics of teachers is very much essential.

References

1. Abbott & Andrew. (1983). Professional ethics. American Journal of Sociology, 88(5), 855-885.
2. Alerby, Gardelli & Persson. (2014). Why philosophical ethics in school: Implications for education in technology and in general. Ethics and Education, 9(1), 16-28.
3. Anangiaye, W.A.L. (2010). Promoting teacher ethics in colleges of teacher education in Tanzania: Practices and challenges. African Journal of Teachers Education, 1(1), 64-77.
4. Campbell, E. (2006). Ethical knowledge in teaching: A moral imperative. Education Canada, 46(4), 32-35
5. Colnerud, G. (1997). Ethical conflicts in teaching. Teaching and Teacher Education, 13(6), 627-635
6. Colnerud, G. (2006). Teacher ethics as a research problem: Syntheses achieved and new issues. Teachers and Teaching, 12(3), 365-385.
7. Fareo, D.O. (2013). Professional development of teachers in Africa: A case study of Nigeria. The African Symposium, 64(13).
8. Gulcan, N.Y. (2015). Discussing the importance of teaching ethics in education. Procedia- Social and Behavioural Sciences, 174, 2622-2625. <http://dx.doi.org/10.1016/j.sbspro.2015.01.942>
9. Kennedy, A. (2005). Early Childhood Australia Code of Ethics: The ethics of connections.
10. Every Child, 11(1), 67-68
11. Oyinloye, G.O. (2010). Primary school teachers' perception of classroom management and its influence on pupil's activities. European Journal of Educational Studies, 2(3), 305-312.